Congressman Ciro Rodriguez Helps Local Library Celebrate National Award

WHAT: Come join the Castroville Public Library and Congressman Ciro Rodriguez (D-TX, 23) as we unveil A More Perfect Union, a part of the national We the People Bookshelf grant award. Castroville Public Library is one of only 4,000 school and public libraries nationwide selected to receive the We the People Bookshelf award.

WHO: This event is open to readers of all ages in the community and surrounding area. Dignitaries speaking at this event will include: Mike Estus, President, Castroville Public Library Advisory Board, Mayor Robert Lee, City of Castroville and Congressman Ciro Rodriguez (D-TX, 23).

WHEN: The We the People Bookshelf program will be held on July 6, 2010, from 10:00 a.m. to 10:45 a.m.

WHERE: Castroville Public Library, 802 London St. Castroville, Texas

WHY: The program is part of a national initiative presented by the National Endowment for the Humanities in cooperation with the American Library Association highlighting important chapters in American history and expressing universal themes that are integral parts of American culture.
